This morning Miss Haskett was Baptized in the Methodist church north of Christ. Mama and I both went to church. All three of us went to the band this evening and meet Mr. Mills who took us to have soda water.

This morning I played and this afternoon our case came off. The lease was thrown out because it hadn't been stamped at the proper time but Burn Gum says that the ~~[illegible]~~ internal tax collector will make it all right. and so does Mr. Jamison. This evening mamma took a walk and I bought some firecrackers etc. ha! ha! ha!

Today is the day before the Fourth. I have played and waited for tomorrow all day. This evening Miss Hackett and Mamma and I went over to the Portland to look for a room for Miss. Hackett

Today was the glorious Fourth as you see. The M. M. G. C. had a meeting at 5 A.M. and had a glorious time. This afternoon Mamma and I went to the Baloon Ascension it was a grand success but we had to wait along while before it went up ha! ha! This evening the fire works were burn and Mamma and I was rubbered ha! ha!

This afternoon the corral and Miss Hayes' room burnt up. I rescued one rat, one pincushion, two pictures, two old saucers, one old etch one old cup and an arm full of books and also a sofa pillow. This evening Bum Pum went away

To day I played marbles all day and there has been no more fires. I went over and played with Frances this afternoon

Today I practiced and played and this evening mamma and I and Miss Haskett all took a walk and went around by Cowan's to get Miss. Haskett's skirt

This morning I went to Sunday school. mamma and I went to church with Miss. Haskett and it was rather late when we got home ha! ha!

July, MONDAY 9. 1900.

Miss, Haskett is going to have the south west home over to Mrs. Hawes Today I played and just think we will have to wait an other week for our suit to come off.

July, TUESDAY 10. 1900.

Today was an other day as usual I played ~~pap~~ with Frances and George and that's about all.

July, WEDNESDAY 11. 1900.

Today I practised and played, ~~and~~ This evening Mamma, Miss Hasbett and I went to Bryans Ratification meeting. Ha! Ha!

July, THURSDAY 12. 1900.

Today I practised and played and this afternoon I went to my elocution lesson

Nothing of any importance happened today I got up washed my face, which was very unusual and went to bed

Today was Grandma's birthday and we all took dinner over to aunt Carrie's. This afternoon Frances and I played paper dolls and this evening Miss Caskett, mamma and I went down town ha! ha! The committee in charge of the Elks entertainment met this evening.

I went to Sunday School this morning and read and played this afternoon and this evening Miss. Hasbett and Mamma and I went to the band concert

Today the lease came back and at ten o' clock the suit came off. I testified but after a little while after I testified I was sick and had to come home. I was all right this afternoon and took my violin lesson. We won our suit. This evening Mamma Miss. Hasbett and I went down to have a rehersal of the entertainment the Elks are going to give assisted by Miss Hasbett. It was rather late when we got home ha, ha

July, TUESDAY 17. 1900.

Today I played and had a good time generally. This evening Mamma and I went to rehursal.

July, WEDNESDAY 18. 1900.

This evening mamma and I went with Miss Caskett to the rehursal and Mamma shot off her mouth about the Cooley Co. and she didn't know that one of the members were in the room. This morning I praciticed and played. The way I have written in my diary you would think that I had gone backwards all day. This morning I took my violin lesson

Today I practised and played. This afternoon we played and I went to my elocution lesson after going to see Jennie Ellington. We went to the rehersal this evening.

Today is another day with nothing to write in my diary, so I will write it nothing.

I practiced this morning and this evening we went to rehersal

July, SATURDAY 21. 1900.

This morning I practiced, while this ~~evening~~ afternoon
I played. This evening Mamma miss. Haskett and I went down town for a walk

July, SUNDAY 22. 1900.

This morning I went to Sunday school and this afternoon I read. This evening
Mr. Farish was hear. At nine o'clock, I ~~w~~ we went to the band,
Mamma and I.

Today my violin teacher never came so I practiced and played and went to the rehersal. I think that my readers will think that going to rehersal is just as common ~~a~~ as now days ~~a~~ as going to bed used to be.

Today I practiced and played and read. This evening I went to the rehersal

This morning I sleep very late. a read all the afternoon and this evening because there was no rehersa

This morning I practiced and sewed on dolls clothes. This afternoon I sewed some more and this evening the three Stroud children were over ~~heare~~ here. Mrs Mills was here also. Frances stayed all night with me. Mamma and Miss Haskett went to rehersal ha! ha! ha! but didn't Frances and I have a good time.

This morning at 4:20 A. M. a baby was born its birth star was Venus. This morning I practiced and went down town this afternoon. This evening mama and I went to the rehersal with Miss. Haskett. I took my violin lesson at five o'clock.

This morning I went down town and this afternoon I played. This evening mama and I took a walk.

This morning I didn't go to ~~the~~ Sunday School. This evening Mamma and I went to the band where we sat on our ruge and talk

Monday 30

There we looked through the capitol building and had supper about five when a sand storm came up finally we came home. This evening ~~mo~~ I went to rehersal but there was none. So Mamma and I took a walk ha! ha

This morning I praciticed and this afternoon Mamma, Frances, George and I accompanied by three dolls, two Bryan buttons and one lunch basket left our front gate in Bum Pums buggy drawn by Beckers. First we went to the ice-factory and uncle Will gave us a watermelon and some ice. Next we went to the bank, then to the soda-pop man, to get some root beer and last of all to the capitol grounds

This morning I practiced ~~day~~ and this afternoon I went over to Matebell Hayes and Mary Hayden came down from Tempe to see me and Ruth Lightner came over. Mary Hayden stayed to supper. We had a beautiful sand-storm this afternoon this evening I went to rehersal

Today I played mostly. This ~~evening~~ afternoon ~~Fr~~ my violin teacher came and this evening Mamma and I went to take a walk.
