Today I did not go to school till afternoon but this morning I went around by the school house with Ab and at recess. This afternoon we had speaking but alas we will not get our cards till Tuesday. Late this eve afternoon mamma and I went down town and we went down town again this evening and had ice cream soda.

Saturday 2

the hem in, and started her best dress. After supper mamma and I went down town and also went and visited Mr. W—, at his place of business.

This morning I went with Grandma down town and bought 5¢ worth of 10¢ a yd. lawn to make my little doll some dresses. After dinner I went down town and Grandma gave me 45¢ and I bought a 40¢ fan for myself and a 5¢ one for mamma. Grandma and I also went to Eve's and pulled the string in front of the store and then went in and had ice cream soda and I sat at the little table and sat in the chair. This afternoon I made my doll a night gown, and hemstitched

This morning I went to Sunday and carried my new fan. May didn't get back before dinner and I had to help Grandma after Sunday School. Mr. Wainwright was over to dinner and supper and May came back. This evening Mamma and I went to band and were ordered of the grass ha! ha!

Today I didn't work at all but read and played. I went down town just before supper and again after supper with Mamma. I han I came home and went to bed.

Today I played as usal and this morning I went down town with Frances and George to get Grandpa a birthday present. George got him a butterfly and Frances got him a handkerchief, Harry got him a pair of garters and I got him a necktie. This evening Mamma and I went to take a walk and I had some peanuts

Today went along nicely and Frances took $28 and I $10 and went down town and bought.

This evening mamma and I ~~went for a walk and I got some peanuts~~ This afternoon we made our dolls clothes. This morning we all had to go for our report cards but Mrs Picotte had taken away some of our examination papers and we don't know when we'll get our cards now.

This morning Grandma said that she would pay both Frances and I each $.50 a month for keeping the down stairs picked up. This afternoon I went to my elocution lesson and I was the only one there. This evening Mamma & I went with Miss Oaskett to raise her pupils in. I also stayed a while and played with Helen & Ly, Mary Baker, Sadie Allen and Ruth Jessop, who were all at Sadie's house.

This morning Frances and I went to work on our job. We played after dinner and took our dolls for a swim and broke them. After supper Mr. Wainwright was over and he says that he is going away tomorrow to San Francisco for a months vacation. George is going to get 10 cents a week for chopping kindle

This morning I got up at five o'clock
and went over to the yard and got some flowers. When I got back I cooked the eggs for Mr. Wainwright
lunch and the mush
for breakfast and Grandma says if I get up every morning
and learn to cook breakfast
she will give me $.50 a month. This afternoon
I went over to Frances.
After supper us
children went down
to see Mr. W. — off.
When I got home Grandma
asked Mamma and I
to go bugry riding
and we had ice-cream soda. It was rather late when I got to bed

Nothing happened much this morning except I played and read but
this afternoon Mr.
Riley brother to
James Witcomb
Riley and Bradstreet
reportor went out
riding with Bum Bum and then stayed to dinner.
After dinner Mr.
Riley, Bum Bum
Mamma and I went to the band
in the buggy and Mamma and I got out with Mr. Riley and walk around

Today I practiced and this afternoon Frances and I thought of a new way to get rid of George. We tell him we'll play prision with him and when he catches us he lockes us up in one of the rooms and thinks he is punishing us dreadfully but we play paper dolls.

This morning I practiced and this afternoon Frances and I played paper dolls in peace nothing else happened except mamma and I took a walk.

today Mrs. Simms and I was here. This afternoon Frances and I played paper-dolls, but when it commenced to get late Frances thought of her elocution lesson, now we knew that George had left the key in the door outside, so we called for someone to let us out but we had to dance a war-dance before ~~I could~~ we could get out, This evening mamma and I went to take a walk and got some peanuts but they were all bad except a few ha! ha!

This morning as mamma and I were going to practice a boy came and said that Miss. Haskett was sick and would we please go down there right away. We went and brought Miss. Haskett back with us. This afternoon mamma taught the elocution class in Miss Hs's — place.

June, FRIDAY 15. 1900.

This morning I got my Report Card and I passed with an average of 84 30/8 Miss. Haskett is just about the same today and I guess she is pretty sick.

June, SATURDAY 16. 1900.

Things went nicely today. This morning I played and practiced and this afternoon Mamma and I went down town in the buggy. This evening Bum Pum had a astrominical party. Those present were: Mr. Riley; Miss. Ellis; Mrs. Burtis; Mr. and Mrs. Ward; Grandma; Mamma; and I. It was very late when I went to bed

This morning I did not go to Sunday School but this evening Mamma and I went to the band concert and meet Mr. Riley Mr. Riley took us over to Beer's and we had some soda water. After we had our soda-water we went and sat on the grass. It was rather late when we got home.

This morning I played and this afternoon Mary Hayden and Sora Grinsberg came down from Tempa and visited me. This evening Mamma and I went to take a walk and I had some peanuts but they were most all burnt.

Today we served the summons on Mr. Barkley and next week I guess the suit will come off. Today I played and enjoyed myself generally. This evening I went over to supper at Aunts Carries because it was Uncle Wills and her tin wedding. Mamma went to the Park Theater with Mr. Farish and Grandma, Miss Haskett and I went to the Indian schoo

Today I played with Frances and this afternoon a barber came to shampoo Miss Haskett's head but he didn't have time to do it before time for her to go to her lessons.

This morning the barber came and shampooed Miss. His head. I his afternoon I took my elocution lesson and played

What did I do today? Oh! nothing ~~much~~ much but get up and go to bed. Jennie Collingson came and visited me this afternoon. This evening I took supper over to Aunt Carrie

Today I practiced and went over to Frances to play this P. M., and I stayed to supper. This evening Grandma, Mamma Miss. Hasbett and I went buggyriding

This morning I went to Sunday School and this afternoon I read and loafed around. Miss. Hasbett, Mamma and I went to the Band Concert and we meet Mr. Riley and we all went and had ~~ice cream~~ soda. I walked around with some girls and when the Band played a waltz we found a dark corner and danced, which I presume was very wicked.

Today Mrs. Simms was here. This afternoon I went over to Frances and played. This evening Mamma ~~took a walk down town~~ preside over the Punch Bowl at the reception given to Col. Wilson at the Adams Hotel. Miss Haskett went also.

Today Mrs. and Ralph Thomas were here. Mrs. Thomas spent the day while Ralph didn't come till about 3:30. This afternoon I went over and played with Frances till Ralph Thomas ~~left~~ came. After ~~[illegible]~~ 5 o'clock I went down and walked home with Miss Haskett. Not one of those breadful boys came to their lessons.

Today I practiced and this afternoon I went with Mama and Miss. Hassett to the church basement to the Juniors Elocution lesson. This evening Mamma and I took a walk just to stretch our legs.

Oh! today was another day in which nothing much happens I got up and went to bed etc.

Today I praticed and played and oh! well, just for an excuse, I guess that was all,

This morning Grandma, Mamma, Miss. Hasket and I went to the sales. This evening, Miss. Hasket accidently stole a fan and I was going to buy some fire crackers but I waited too long it was to late, alas!
