Today I went to school and everything went nicely. This evening I went over to the Lightburns to practice with Ruth, Miss Brouch and Elmerst. This evening my dancing teacher came while I was a way.

Tonight mamma and I went to the Hi Jinks at the park and had a fine time. I danced ~~with~~ most every dance and got to bed at one o'clock. I wore a skirt to my ankles and a green velvet bodice with a white gimp and a tall cap and a pink mask and other necessities of apparel. Mamma wore a sailor suit.

Today Mr. Picotte was very good natured and everything went nicely. This evening Harry came and I started to take my lesson but I was taken sick and went to bed. Mr. Wainwright was over to supper. ~~This evening my dancing teacher came but I was to sick to take my lesson~~

Today Mr. Picotte told the children that he would have to leave them a week before school was out and the children nearly cried they felt so sorry. After school I played and this evening mamma and I went over to aunt Carrie's.

Oh, this afternoon at school we had a Geography match. One that we have to go tale when we missed. Mr. Picotte said that the first five would get 100, the next ten 90 and the next ten 80 and the last five would get 75. I was fifth and Guy Alsrah, the smartest boy in our room, was six and only got 90. After school I played and this evening mamma and I took a walk.

Today Grandma went to Iron Springs on the picnic. I practiced this morning and this afternoon mamma and I went for a buggy ride. When we got home I we went over and visited Miss. Ellis. Then it commenced to rain and it rained steddy till we started for the depot to meet the folks.

This morning I didn't go to Sunday school ~~at all~~ but I stayed home. This afternoon Mr. Wainwright was over. He was here to bath dinner and supper. After supper I went to the band.

Today I went to school and after school mamma and I went to town in the buggy and had some soda. After supper Harry came.

Today everything went nicely at school. After school I played. I warn anyone who chances to read this and has the diary keeping craze to get another craze right away.

Today I went to school and after school I took my elocution lesson and I am going to be put in a higher class. After school I went buggy riding with Grandma and Mamma

Today I played and went to school. Mr. Picotte was very cross to day. After school I practised and played Today I went to school as usal. Nothing much happened except Harry came.

Today I went to school as usal. After school I played and this evening I went over and practiced with the Lightburnes and miss Crouch. We are going to play for the A. O. U. W. tomorrow night. After we got home we thought about the A. string I needed. So back down town I went but all the stores were closed.

May, WEDNESDAY 16. 1900.

Today I got 100% in spelling. This evening I played with Miss Crouch, Elmerst and Ruth Lightburne, and Mamma for the A.C.U.W. I didn't get home till eleven o'clock. But I must not forget that I went for a bicycle ride this morning at 5:30. I went and got an A and a D string at the pawnb[illegible] at six. I was his first customer.

May, THURSDAY 17. 1900.

This morning I slept as late as I could. Every thing went nicely at school. After school I went to see Jenny who ~~is very~~ was sick Mr. Wainwright was here to supper.

This afternoon Mr. Cotrell, or something like that, who is going to be our teacher came in and taught us while Mr. Picotte went somewhere. This after school I took my elocution lesson and after supper I went for a walk.

Today I practiced and played paper dolls. This evening I went to take a walk with mamma.

This morning I didn't go to Sunday school at all, this afternoon I poured over magazines and this evening I went to band. Mr. W.— was here to dinner and supper both.

Today began another day of sorrow in which this little girl missed six words in spelling, after school I played

Today I went to school and we had final examination in reading and I got 85. This evening we went to a lawn social at Mrs. Morford, and Mr. Irish and Ade were here to dinner this evening.

This morning I didn't want to get up but finally had to. I ate my breakfast went to school. After school I played and eat my supper. This evening Mr. W — was over. I started a peice of poetry which went like this:—

"The Lane".

'Twas a place, with fruit, seclude where the young folks used to walk,
When they couldn't have the young men to the house, just to have a little talk

but some way my poetry
when turned into the road
called love isn't anygood
so I tore it up.

This mourning we had final examination in Grammar. After dinner we had a Geography match and I got 100. This evening I spoke, "Stealing a Watermelon" at the Christin Church. Mr. Mainwright blacked me and I was a sight. He also told us the way to fix the blacking. First you put four corks in a pan and pour alcohol over them and light them. It is better to cut them in small pieces than powder them and mix with stale beer. The corks should be $1\frac{5}{16}$ in. in diam. and $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. high or lease more corks must be used. I spoke my peice very Today we had final examination in Georgraphy and this afternoon a spelling match. After the spelling match Mr. Picotte bide us all good by for he leaves to night for San Fransiso I think. After school I took my elocution lesson and went with Mamma to see if Miss. Crouch would play in Miss. Haskell entertainment and than to return the glue.

Thursday 24.

nicely and sang I'se Swine Back Se Dixie. for an encore. It was eleven o'clock when I got to bed. We forgot my eyebrows till over.

May, SATURDAY 26. 1900.

Today I practiced and ~~red~~ read thill I was stupid. Than I went over to the big ditch with ~~Geogre~~ George and let my feet hang in. Than I played and after supper Mr. Wainwright came over.
